

Additional Risk Disclosure

In opening your account with Wedbush Futures you were provided with various Risk Disclosure Statements describing the risk of loss in commodity futures and options trading. In addition, we are required to provide this Additional Risk Disclosure if you fall under any of the below categories.

Accordingly, this is to remind you that the risk of loss in commodity futures and options trading can be substantial. In addition, this is to confirm that speculation is your trading objective and that the money you sent to open your account as well as any additional funds you may send is true risk capital that you can afford to lose.

Check all that apply to you:

- No previous investment experience
- Over age 65
- Annual salary below $25,000
- Net worth below $50,000
- Not currently employed or retired

Customer Acknowledgment Authorization

I have been informed of the risk of substantial loss in commodity futures and options trading and I am willing to assume the risk and able to withstand such a loss in view of my current financial situation. Please sign below and return to your broker:

Signature: _____	Joint Account Signature: (If Applicable) _____
Printed Name: _____	Printed Name: _____
Date: _____	Date: _____